Jan 15, 2026

Al-Isra and Al-Mi'raj Event Promotes Religious Values Among Students

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain campus organized an event titled “Al-Isra and Al-Mi'raj: The Beginning and the Guidance”, in cooperation with the Islamic Education Program and the Arabic Language and Literature Program, as part of its efforts to promote religious and cultural values among students.

The event included a series of purposeful cultural segments that highlighted the meanings of Al-Isra and Al-Mi'raj and their faith-based and educational significance, in addition to distinguished student contributions that reflected creativity and active engagement, within an atmosphere that embodied the noble values of this blessed occasion.

Press Release Link